

Where can I usually buy fiber optic splice boxes

Summary of Content

Fiber optic splice boxes can be purchased from online marketplaces like Amazon or specialized suppliers such as Graybar, FiberOptic Supply, Primus Cable, Multilink, Fibertronics, Fiberlink, and Topfiberbox.

Online Retail Options

- Amazon offers a wide selection of fiber optic splice boxes and enclosures, including wall-mounted, outdoor waterproof, and desktop models suitable for FTTH and other network applications. Products range from small 2-port boxes to large 144-core enclosures, often with included splice trays and adapters for SC, LC, or FC connectors (Amazon.com) .

Specialized Suppliers

- Graybar provides professional-grade fiber optic splice closures from brands like Corning, CommScope, AFL, and Panduit, suitable for both indoor and outdoor installations. Some items may require direct vendor ordering (Graybar) .
- FiberOptic Supply stocks a variety of splice enclosures, including dome closures, inline closures, and high-capacity FOSC closures, with options for pre-order or immediate purchase (FiberOptic Supply) .
- Primus Cable offers hermetically sealed vertical and horizontal fiber splice enclosures for aerial and underground applications, often including installation hardware (Primus Cable) .
